Amazing Grace

Amazing grace, How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost, but now I am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils and snares
I have already come,
'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far
And grace will lead me home.

The Lord has promised good to me
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be,
As long as life endures.

Yea, when this flesh and heart shall fail,
And mortal life shall cease
I shall possess within the veil,
A life of joy and peace.

When we've been there ten thousand years
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we've first begun.

Order of Service

Processional "Jerusalem" Edward William Elgar (Pre-recorded)
Poem led by Joy Basdeo
Music "Ode to Joy" Beethoven's 9th Symphony (Pre-recorded)
Prayer of St Francis Congregation

Prayer of St. Francis

Lord, make us instruments of your peace.

Where there is hatred, let us sow love;

Where there is injury, pardon;

Where there is doubt, faith;

Where there is desire, hope;

Where there is darkness, light;

Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,

Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,

To be understood as to understand,

To be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned.

Acknowledgment

We would like to say thank you to everybody for all the support that you gave to us, but we would like to say a special thank you to Carlene and Decoda for all the love and care they gave dad, with the laughs, music, watching his shows and making him as comfortable as possible in sometimes, uncomfortable situations. In addition, we'd also like to thank Ann and John Elliott, Carol and Ray Jones, Vivia and Richard Mcleod, the late John Harding for all the love and support both mental and physical they gave to dad in the hospital and then at home, these last 16 months. We are lucky to have all of you in our lives.

Thank you and love from Paul and Cathryn.
