Your loving husband McCurley

There are not many women who absolutely love the world of sports!!! SHE sure did... and we loved talking, betting and sharing sports trivia together. She loved the Miami Heat and the Indiana Pacers.

She was the life of any party. B A always had great advice and encouraging words for me. I think she had a hand in my being with Patty. As pre-teens at the swimming pool, she always told me, "do a dive for Patty". I will MISS her deeply and I am left with a void in my life that only time will heal. I have great memories of wonderful times spent together. May her memory be a blessing.

Love forever,

Gary (Brother)

My sister Beth Ann, was a very giving and caring person. I remember on one occasion she noticed McCurley's grandmother despondent and realized she had cataracts. She encouraged her to have eye surgery which was quite a feat.

She once gave away my "beloved" drill to people in Honduras after a hurricane. She also initiated a roof fundraiser in Cayman for people affected from Hurricane Ivan. (Of course, she wanted me to fix them). My sister had a very joyful nature. I will miss her deeply.

Love,

Jay (Brother)

I was always amazed and impressed at the confidence Beth Ann possessed. She didn't use this self-assuredness in an ego-centric manner, but rather the opposite. She was able to captivate a room, negotiate a deal and change opinions by merely being her. Anyone who met her, remembered her. She was quite the woman and sister.. unlike anyone I knew. I will miss her laughter, at times her crudeness, and her guidance and support. But mostly, I quite simply will MISS HER...

All my love,

Patty (sister in Law)

BA,
Little did I know that for my birthday in February that that would be last collage of pictures I would get from you as a birthday gift. I will have them framed not sure I will do as good a job as you but will certainly try. The ones that you so beautifully created for my 40th/50th/60th will be treasured/lasting memories....I will especially remember my 60th when you organized/arranged for my friends/family to deliver a gift to me each day for 60 days...this turned out to be such a fun event and was enjoyed by all that participated and those that looked on... Also, on the Sunday before your passing not sure why but I cooked one your favorite meals.... chicken parmigiana and I received this whatsApp message from you...
“Wonderful dinners...best ever....Love you”

We know not when, we know not how, just grateful for the times we had. Cherished memories of wonderful fun filled times spent with you.

Lovingly,

Lynne

BA,
Death may have taken you away from me, but it could never take away your memories. You will always be in my Heart , in your own special place. As you always said make sure you take care of Curly for me, this is one promise I will keep. I will miss your text messages.
Rest in Peace!

Love Laurel & Family

Abraham Lincoln said "In the end, it's not the years in your life that count. It's the life in your years." That pretty much sums up BA for me.

I was late to arrive into BA's world. Everyone had already made and had been sharing memories of family, children being born, businesses being built,

People of the past, specifically North Side and how it used to be. She welcomed me with open arms and a warm heart full of a passion for life.

Over the 13 years that I knew her she shared those stories of days gone by, some secrets, some tips and guidance with me. She introduced me to

Some of the most amazing people, sent those uplifting morning text messages, miraculously on the days I needed them most.

I thank her for sharing and letting me be a part of her world, I just wish she would have stayed a little longer. Sleep in peace, BA

Life Well Lived

A LIFE WELL LIVED IS A PRECIOUS GIFT, OF HOPE AND STRENGTH AND GRACE,
FROM SOMEONE WHO HAS MADE OUR WORLD
A BRIGHTER, BETTER PLACE.

IT'S FILLED WITH MOMENTS,
SWEET AND SAD WITH SMILES
AND SOMETIMES TEARS, WITH FRIENDSHIPS FORMED
AND GOOD TIMES SHARED,
AND LAUGHTER THROUGH THE YEARS.

A LIFE WELL LIVED IS A LEGACY, OF JOY AND PRIDE AND PLEASURE,
A LIVING, LASTING MEMORY
OUR GRATEFUL HEART'S WILL TREASURE.

She will be sadly missed but fondly remembered.

Til next time

Sitting in the dark mourning my friend..
One life is just starting, but another had to end..
I know there's no Rhyme or Reason for why things turn out the way they do..
But hearing an answer might bring me some peace,
and maybe some closure too..

I know that you're up there watching over us all..
You're now the reason I even want to believe in a heaven at all..

I just know that one day we'll see each other again..

So this isn't a goodbye, just a til next time my friend..

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun; of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

*“When someone you love becomes a memory,
the memory becomes a treasure.”*
