

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've now found peace at the end of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee,
God wanted me now-He set me free

Life Of Abbott Oliver Thompson Jr. "Stormy"

Born in Grand Cayman at Galleon Beach what we now call Grand Cayman Marriott during a storm on November 1, 1953, where Mr. Abbott Oliver Thompson Jr inherited his nickname "Stormy". Stormy was born to Delma Foster and Abbott Thompson Sn who proceeded him in death.

Stormy grew to find his life's calling as a devoted husband and independent contractor of his own Fencing business. Meeting his wife as a teenager Maria Frederick they began a beautiful marriage which spanned over 40 years of utter and complete devotion. Together they raised four beautiful children Leticia, Fernando, Fabian and Letanya Thompson with compassion, love and understanding.

Stormy was a devoted father and contractor. He enjoyed farming and planting fruit trees in his spare time. He was a skilled Seaman who spent several years at sea, traveling to over 15 countries. Stormy was a very independent man and problem solver who often took on difficult projects at work and around the house. However, nothing made Stormy more happier than spending time with his grandchildren Giselle, Ayden and Ari'anne Thompson. He had a very special place in his heart with extra love and care for them, they were considered his world. Stormy will sadly be missed by his family.

He is survived by his wife Maria, daughters Leticia and Letanya, sons Fernando and Fabian, grandchildren Giselle, Ayden, Ari'anne and Kayden, his sisters Janet, Marita, daphne, special cousin Sarahlee and special niece Kyla.

Stormy will forever be in our hearts and may he rest in eternal peace.
