Life story of the late Thomas William McLean Snr.

Thomas William McLean Snr. was born in Guanaja, Honduras on October 22, 1975, to parents Preston McLean Snr. and Veronica Robinson (nee) Garvin Hinds. He and his parents, along with brother Charles and baby sister Bibiana, came to reside in Grand Cayman in December of 1980, the birthplace of Thomas Grandfather Charles Mclean.

Ms. Veronica and her family first lived in George Town but then moved to Bodden Town about six years later until present, Thomas was a well-known person in Bodden Town and had many friends that created great bonds.

Thomas would go on to attend and successfully graduate from George Town Primary School, Middle School, and John Gray High School. Thomas would later begin a loving journey of fatherhood to Julissa Elliott, Shantel McLean, Tamia McLean, Thomas McLean Jr. and Catalaya McLean.

Thomas balanced a variety of jobs to help support his children. The last employment in Grand Cayman was at an Esso gas station on the Prospect roundabout to town. After not being able to secure a steady paying job in Grand Cayman, and in hopes of seeking better job opportunity, Thomas decided to move to Cayman Brac in 2017 where he would be nearer to his brother Charles. Thankfully, he was able to land a job working under the Public Works Department roadside crew.

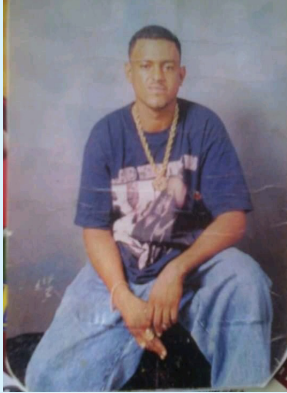

Thomas was entrenched in Cayman Brac and built a beautiful home that was nearly completed, this was his pride and Joy and he physically worked really hard to see this come to fruition. Thomas would often bring his only son Thomas Jr. from Grand Cayman to the Brac during school breaks, and they would play video games, hang out and go fishing for hours, this brought tremendous joy to his life. Having been such a generous family man, he would send some of his catch to his children, mother, and brother and even to some friends still living over in Grand Cayman. Thomas really loved the ocean and One of his' favorite seasons was the lobster and conch season.

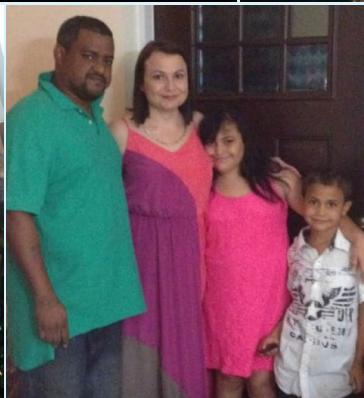

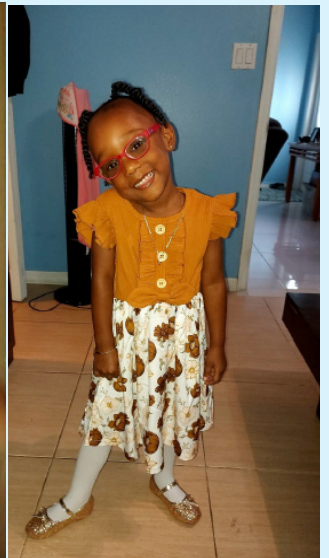

On such a beautiful day, February 14, 2023, Thomas was returning to work after having lunch, where unfortunately a vehicle collided directly into him, and his life would be taken too soon. Thomas had a vibrant personality and was full of life, and this news brought great sadness to his friends and family in Cayman Brac and Grand Cayman.

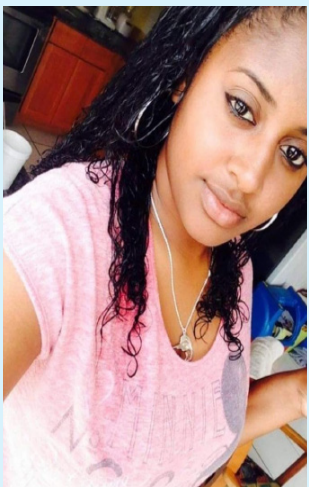

Thomas is preceded in death with his father Preston McLean Snr., brothers Preston McLean Jr. and Egbert Robinson, and Grandmother Lizzette Garvin.

Left to mourn his passing are: Mother Veronica Robinson, stepfather Eduardo Robinson, Children Julissa Elliott, Shantel McLean, Tamia McLean, Thomas McLean Jr and Catalaya McLean. Siblings Charles McLean, Eduardo Robinson Jr, Bibiana McLean, Natalia Izaza Robinson, Bethany Campbell, Gayle McLean and George Foster Kelly, Sister-in-law Deseray McLean, son-in-law Lenando Elliott, grandchildren Imani, Alena and Cameron, nieces and nephews Amber McLean, Amiyah McLean, Raheem McLean, Micah McLean and Jason McLean. You will be missed and fondly remembered.

Rest In Peace.

I'll Fly Away

Some bright morning when this life is over
I'll fly away
To that home on God's celestial shore
I'll fly away

I'll fly away oh glory
I'll fly away (in the morning)
When I die hallelujah by and by
I'll fly away

When the shadows of this life have gone
I'll fly away
Like a bird from these prison walls I'll fly
I'll fly away

Just a few more weary days and then
I'll fly away
To a land where joys will never end
I'll fly away
