*Soon and Very Soon
When we all get to Heaven*

Soon And Very Soon

When We All Get To Heaven

Soon and very soon, we are going to see the king (3x)
hallelujah, hallelujah we are going to see the king
No more crying there, we are going to see the king (3x)
hallelujah, hallelujah we are going to see the king
No more dying there we are going to see the king (3x)
hallelujah, hallelujah we are going to see the king

Should there be any rivers we must cross, should there be any mountains we must climb.
God will supply all the strength that we need give us grace 'til we reach the other side.

We have come from every nation,
god knows each of us by name,
Jesus gave his blood and he washed our sins
and He washed them all away.

Yes, there are some of us who have laid down there lives
but we all shall live again on the other side.

Sing the wondrous love of Jesus, Sing His mercy and His grace
In the mansions bright and blessed, He'll prepare for us a place.

Refrain: When we all get to Heaven, What a day of rejoicing that will be
When we all see Jesus, We'll sing and shout the victory!

While we walk the pilgrim pathway, clouds will over-spread the sky
But when traveling days are over, not a shadow, not a sigh.

Let us then be true and faithful, trusting, serving every day
Just one glimpse of Him in glory, will the toils of life repay.

Onward to the prize before us! Soon His beauty we'll behold;
Soon the pearly gates will open; We shall tread the streets of gold.
