Great Is Thy Faithfulness

Great is Thy faithfulness, O God my Father!
There is no shadow of turning with Thee
Thou changest not, Thy compassions, they fail not;
As thou hast been Thou forever will be.

Refrain: Great is Thy faithfulness,
Great is Thy faithfulness!
Morning by morning new mercies I see;
All I have needed Thy hand hath provided
Great is Thy faithfulness
Lord unto me!

Summer and winter, and spring-time and harvest
Sun, moon and stars in their courses above
Join with all nature in manifold witness
To Thy great faithfulness, mercy and love.

Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth
Thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide
Strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow
Blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside!

Because He Lives

God sent His son, they called Him Jesus
He came to love, heal and forgive;
He bled and died to buy my pardon
An empty grave is there to prove my Saviour lives.

Refrain: Because He lives; I can face tomorrow.
Because He lives; All fear is gone
Because I know, I know, He holds the future.
And life is worth the living just because He lives.

How sweet to hold a newborn baby
And feel the pride and joy He gives,
But greater still that calm assurance
This child can face uncertain days because He lives.

And then one day I'll cross that river
I'll fight life's final war with pain,
And then as death gives way to victory
I'll see the lights of glory and I'll know He reigns.

Tribute for Rovyn Cameron

My darling cousin Rovyn. For portions of our childhood, we grew up in the same household. When Rovyn lived with Aunty Monica he would stop by my mother's home after school to spend some time with us before going up to his house in Nottingham. We both share the same birth year so that means we would experience similar milestones of our lives at the same time. We passed GSAT the same year, we went to high school at the same time and graduated from high school the same year. We basically grew up like siblings. We had many talks, laughs, and even quarrels together but I always loved him like my own brother. I remember Rovyn to be a kind, loving, caring, well-mannered humble, social and outgoing person. He used to love music, food, his phone, his mother (he had a special love for her), his family, girls, taking picture, and social media. He enjoyed talking to people, swimming, going outside the house and enjoying nature even if it is by himself. With his friendly and outgoing personality he was brave to go to the movie alone. He was not afraid to do things. He was adventurous. A true brave king. In fact, I hardly ever seen Rovyn elicit signs of fear.

I remember one evening when I saw him at the bus park talking to girls and I started to interrogate him. He got upset that he told me "when you see me pon the road, avoid me". Shortly after graduation Rovyn came to live at my house for a while before he migrated to Grand Cayman to work. He was so happy and he got a chance to be closer to his parents and grandparents. I was so happy for him. He contacted me regularly and encouraged me to do well in my studies. On visits to Jamaica we would talk and laugh like he never left. One childhood memory that I always remember is when we were playing in the back yard on a guava tree. I stated the last person to reach the top of the tree is the loser. He began racing to the top and held one of the tree branches that shifted and the sharp edge scraped my chest. It began to bleed and I started to cry. I knew when it healed there would be big scar. I still have the scar today and wear it happily. It will always remind me of the childhood that I shared with my beloved cousin Rovyn. I will always love Rovyn and hold on dear to the memories we shared. Most of all I will try to emulate the kindness and love he extended to the people around him. I love you Rovyn, Rest in eternal peace.

Tribute from Marlon Malabre and Family

I always know Rovyn as a very quiet, brilliant and polite cousin. My fondest memory of my cousin was during the pandemic. I had visited Glengoffe and we were all having a great time at Symone's house. Rovyn was very excited about the masks that he was wearing. He kept saying "Marlon, that mask look so nice" Where did you buy it? He asked. I ended up giving my cousin my mask and he was so happy. I am so saddened that in recent times I did not get a chance to keep in touch with my cousin. I was happy to know that he was in Cayman Islands. I have learnt a valuable lesson due to this experience that "blood thicker than water" and that I must always be there and check up on my relatives. Sleep on my cousin Rovyn, take your rest.

Tribute to Rovyn

Only a day, when you were gone
You blew out of my life just like a storm
Thoughts of you are unforgettable
Memories of you sweet and admirable

Your acts of kindness and your smile
Will mesmerize for quite a while
Rovyn was like a son to me
I asked myself, HOW CAN THIS BE?

My heart is overwhelmed
Even as I write
But our Master knows well
You have fought a good fight
Rest well my son, Rovyn

Rememberance for Royyn Cameron

Quote

'The clock of time is wound but once
And no man has the power
To tell just when the clock will stop
At late or early hour
So let us live, love and work with a will
In tomorrow place no trust
For then the clock may be still'

Rovyn Cameron has been a part of the Pentecostal City Mission Church family over the years. He was quite kind and loving. Ever since he became part of us he was very loyal and devoted. He became a member of our young people's group.

He played a major role and participated well. He never left his bible. He was punctual to meetings. He would call an hour before to ensure that the group was in session. He was very humble and unique in his ways. He was also a part of the men's group where he was involved in the different activities. Because of his humility I recall having a function at church and the Master of Ceremonies selected him to do a role play to be the Prime Minister Andrew Holiness. He was successful at the interview and from that day he was called Prime Minister by the comedian.

Rovyn is remember in a special way for being mannersable and neat. As a church family we miss him. He will always be in our memories.
