“She Is Not Gone”

By Genie Graveline

Ease your grief, she is not gone,
For in your heart she lingers on.
Her smile, her laugh, her special way,
Will comfort you from day to day.

You'll feel her presence in the breeze,
That dances gently through the trees.
And it's her face that you shall see,
When you're in need of company.

At any time you can recall,
The love you shared... you saved it all.
And in time, more than anything,
You'll find peace in remembering.

Tribute from Children

Adapted from We Remember Them (Author Unknown)

At the rising of the sun and at its going down,
We will remember you.

At the turning of a book's page and at the sound of a calypso beat,
We will remember you.

At the smell of stew turtle and the sight of a rose,
We will remember you.

At the pouring of the last drink and in the Lower Valley heat,
We will remember you.

In the joyous moments of celebration and the beauty of family,
We will remember you.

As long as we live, you too will live;
For you have always been a part of us, as we remember you.

When we are weary and in need of strength,
We will remember you.

When we are lost and lonely at heart,
We will remember you.

When we have joys that we yearn to share,
We will remember you.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
We will remember you.

When we have achievements inspired by selflessness,
We will remember you.

As long as we live, you too shall live,
For we have always been a part of you, as we remember you.

Tribute from Grandchildren
Grandma's Song

Years gone by
And I can't forget
The love you shared with me
Your gentle soul granded my heart and my memories
There's nothing like a grandma's love
There's no one quite like you
Wish I could see you smile once more
Like you used to do
Your gave from the heart in all you did for our family
The sacrifices that you made
Often went unseen

There's nothing like a grandma's love
There's no one quite like you
Wish I could see you smile once more
Like you used to do
Mommies and daddies have their own way of sharing love with you
There's always a little something more
The way that grandma's do
There's nothing like a grandma's love
There's no one quite like you
Wish I could see you smile once more
Like you used to do
Like you used to do

Tribute from Stepmother
"My Junie"

You left this world before I could say goodbye,
But I will hold onto all the precious memories I have of you and your zeal for "good times".

I did not have a stepdaughter,
For in my heart, you were my first daughter who indirectly taught me a lot of life's struggles and the development of coping skills during our teenage years and into womanhood
with your siblings.

You will live on forever in that special place in my heart,
Reserved for only you.

Until we meet again – sleep peacefully now, my Junie.

Special Thanks

Our family would like to express our heartfelt appreciation to every person who offered prayers, calls, e-mails, enduring support, and understanding during this difficult time.

“Let us be contented with what has happened to us and thankful for all we have been spared. Let us accept the natural order in which we move. Let us reconcile ourselves to the mysterious rhythm of our destinies such as they must be in this world of space and time. Let us treasure our joys but not bewail our sorrows. The glory of light cannot exist without its shadows. Life is a whole; and good and ill must be accepted together. The journey has been enjoyable and well worth making – once.”

Sir Winston Churchill
