

Service of Thanksgiving For The Life of

Kenneth Patrick Heffernan

May 11th, 1976 – June 24th 2024

Bodden Funeral Service
117 Walkers Rd., Grand Cayman, B.W.I.

Sunday, 30 June 2024
12:300 p.m.

Order of Service

Opening Remarks: Peter Fitzgerald (Father-in-Law)

Eulogy: Peter Fitzgerald (Father-in-Law)

Tributes:

Emma Fitzgerald (Cousin)

Colin Heffernan (Brother)

Dylan Heffernan (Son) Read by Ken's niece in law - Courtney Hicks

Slide show and Song Tribute

Song: The Swallow recorded version sung by Joseph Heffernan (Father)

Closing Remarks: Peter Fitzgerald

Closing Song

Raglan Road Sung by: James Carolan

Guest Book Attendant

Mrs. Catherine Hicks (Sister-in-Law)

Video Tribute to Ken played to the song - 'The Swallow'

*To far off lands, the swallow now is speeding
For warmer climates and sun-drenched foreign Shores*

*While cooler breezes tell of summer fading
My heart with you, into the heavens will soar.*

*Oh graceful swallow bear a message of love
For on your journey, lies the land of my heart
As down you sweep, shed my blessings upon
Them*

That tell of love which in my heart still burns

*Among those shores are all that I care or live for
My home, my loved ones, waiting for my return
Then glide downwards as you see from above
A sea swept isle from which we had to part*

*Each winter long console me in my dreaming
And you fond swallow on your gleaming wings
Will speed as I would wish I could go speeding
Straight to their hearts, and with you my love bring*

*Oh graceful swallow...
(Repeat Last Line)*

Tributes

Ken today we say goodbye, you have fought a long and hard fight, always positive and without complaint and a smile on your face. Through memories you will stay in our hearts forever.

- From Pansy (Mother in Law)

Ken was a charming man and a very good chef. He fought a long and painful battle but now its all over. For all of us who are close family members we will never forget him because all we have to do is look at the face of his son Dylan and there's Ken looking back at you.

Rest in peace Ken.

- From Aunt Gayle

To the best dressed chef I have ever known.

Your presence in our lives has been a constant emitter of hope and positivity. Seeing you arrive in the kitchen with your cap on your head and a big smile on your face always lifted the whole team and made us all happier in our work.

The creativity and drive that you possessed for getting into new projects, new adventures and fresh possibilities was fantastic and infectious. You had a grá for learning, you would immerse yourself into something completely, it was inspiring and a joy to see and to be around.

It is a devastating feeling and a real shame that your journey came to an end before its time, because it was a genuine brightness for those lucky enough to know you. It is a true privilege to be your friend.

Love you Brother, can't wait to see you again for chats and a big hug in whatever comes after this.

- From John Dunne (Owner Fidel Murphy's)

